

Joanne Ecob Called 1985

Private Law Children & Domestic Violence

Joanne appears in the more complex, protracted and intractable residence and contact disputes and is briefed to appear on behalf of 9.5 Guardians including acting on behalf of the National Youth Advocacy Service (NYAS). Joanne also has experience of cases involving child abduction and all aspects of domestic violence.

Public Law Children and Adoption

Joanne has an extensive public law Children Act practice involving regular High Court, County Court and Family Proceedings Court appearances in cases of sexual abuse, non accidental injury and serious neglect. He acts regularly for local authorities, parents, grandparents and Guardians.

Joanne frequently represents local authorities, parents, Guardians and other interested parties in Placement Order and Adoption proceedings.

Personal Injury

Joanne has long experience in all areas of personal injury practice acting on behalf of Claimants and Defendants in particular the more serious road traffic and employer/employee claim.

Joanne has considerable experience of fatal accident claims.

Clinical Negligence

Joanne has long experience of acting for both Claimants and Defendants (principally GPs and Consultants though their professional indemnity bodies) and regularly advises those representing after the event insurers as to the viability of claims.

